THEIR TICKET

Some of the Men Mentioned for the Populist Nominations.

THE REPRESENTATIVE

There are Three Men Who Will Probably Be Candidates for the Position of Sheriff.

A NOMINATION FOR SENATOR

The Populists of McCracken county are preparing to hold their convention here on August 17th and put out a full ticket. There will probably be good material on hand, asking to be placed on the ticket.

For representative from McCracken, Mr. Hardy Harrison, will no doubt get the nomination.

For jailer, Mr. Charles Unselt.

For county judge, Mr. Thomas Long.

For sheriff, Messrs. Tom Reid, Wm. Pepper and J. Crit Jones are mentioned as probable candidates.

For county school superintendent, Will Covington.

If it is decided to call a senatorial convention, Hon. Bud Reeves, of Ballard county, will be the nominee.

Candidates for other county offices will be filled at the convention, but are at present not decided on.

The Populists claim 900 votes in this county, and expect to have something to say about who is elected this year. The vote, whatever it is, will be taken principally from the Democratic ranks.

NEW GROUNDS.

Reported to Judge Emery That Stock Desecrates Graveyard.

He Will Prosecute all Offenders Hereafter Reported to Him by the Complainants.

Judge Emery has received many complaints from residents of the county relative to stock running loose in the county graveyard. He says many have come to him and informed him of people turning their horses and cows into the burial ground to graze, and that if it is not stopped he will arrest and prosecute the guilty persons to the fullest extent of the law.

"I have issued orders to the officers to report all the persons they find doing this," Judge Emery remarked, "and if anything further is heard and if names are reported to me, I will have them arrested and prosecuted."

LAST TODAY.

FINAL CONFERENCE TO SETTLE THE STEEL STRIKE.

Pittsburg, August 2.—It looks today as if the steel strike will not be settled by the conference of the executive board of strikers. The last conference will be held today. It is rumored that the steel trust is hiring thousands of negroes from the iron works in the south to take the place of the strikers. A bitter struggle seems imminent.

WILL HOLD ON

County Judge Emery Gets Mad at Being Dubbed "Bolter."

HE SPEAKS HIS MIND

Will Now Relinquish Nothing, But Will Hold On to His Chairmanship—Chairman Potter Gets Busy.

BARDWELL'S LIVELY PROSPECT

The factional fight in the Democratic party of McCracken county is increasing in bitterness, and County Judge Emery, as a result of being alluded to in an organ-dominated, apparently, by the Potter faction, as a "bolter," is very mad today, and announces that while at first he was determined to relinquish his claims to the chairmanship, for the sake of harmony, he is now determined to fight it out to the end, and will attempt to preside over the senatorial convention at Bardwell a week from tomorrow, a pleasant duty that the other chairman of the committee, Mr. Potter, is also duly prepared to discharge.

Judge Emery stated this morning to a reporter that he will allow the state central committee to settle the dispute, and harmony can take care of itself.

"I went so far," he said substantially today, "as to tell Mr. Potter that there would be no contention in the opening of the Bardwell convention, for the sake of keeping harmony in the party. I have done everything possible to preserve harmony, but since I have been dubbed a 'bolter,' I shall lay the matter before the state central committee, and let it decide who is the 'bolter.' I still consider myself chairman of the county Democratic committee, and while I was willing to relinquish my claims at one time, since these later developments, I shall insist on the proper authorities deciding the matter."

This further complicates matters, for it is a well known fact that Judge Emery and Secretary Eaton have the support and sanction of the state central committee, which cannot, having gotten them into it, now desert them.

Yesterday representatives of the Potter men went to Secretary Eaton and wanted him to give up the records and funds of the committee and relinquish his claims to the office without contention, but he told me to "go to," and that he would relinquish or give up nothing.

Another feature of the fight is that Chairman Potter and his adherents, who have heretofore ignored the state central committee, and professed not to care what it did or decided, are now making a play for its support, by circulating a petition asking recognition for Mr. Potter and Mr. Lydon as the legally constituted chairman and secretary of the committee. This indicates to the men on the other side, that Mr. Potter and his friends are becoming a little afraid of the result.

It was reported that Congressman Wheeler declined to sign the petition circulated by Mr. Potter. Mr. Wheeler is not in the city today, but it was given out at his office that he is not concerned in these petty fights and has no interest in them one way or the other.

The tug of war will doubtless come when both Messrs. Potter and Emery attempt to preside over the senatorial convention at Bardwell Saturday week. If there isn't a rough house, indications are not worth much this kind of weather.

SON NOT FOUND.

RELATIVES OF CORNELIUS VAN KUREN WILL PROBABLY NOT HAVE HIM BURIED.

The body of Cornelius Van Kuren, the veteran Union soldier who died Monday at Houser's wagon yard, is still unclaimed at Nance's undertaking establishment. His relatives are supposed to be at Kanjakee, Ill., and Undertaker Nance wrote to Postmaster H. J. Dunlap there, this morning received a reply stating that the deceased had only a nephew there, and as he was not in good circumstances, did not care to make any suggestions about the remains. He has a son, but his whereabouts are unknown. Relatives had not heard from the dead man, according to the postmaster, for thirty years.

Undertaker Nance has written to other places and hopes to hear from the son shortly.

IMPORTANT AFFAIRS ON THE I. C.

Mr. D. L. Gilbert, of the mechanical department of the Illinois Central here, has accepted a foremanship in the mechanical department of the C. H. and D. railroad at Indianapolis. Mr. Gilbert came here from Indianapolis some time ago and since his residence here has made many friends who will regret to learn of his departure but who will congratulate him in his position.

A Cadiz paper states that on the new railroad being built there, two-thirds of the heavy work is already done and will be ready for the ties by the 1st of October. Contracts have been made for the delivery by rail of all the coal used in Cadiz by the 1st of November. About thirty teams and scrapers are at work on the road, and four miles of the roughest part of the route are now ready for the ties. The ties are on the ground and the rails bought.

Mr. George Hailey, a graduate of the State college at Lexington, left today at noon for Springfield, Ill., where he will accept a position with the Chicago and Alton railroad with headquarters at the above place. Mr. Hailey is a civil engineer and was one of the best pupils of the class in which he graduated this year. He is also a graduate of the Paducah public schools and had a very high standing here. His friends will be glad to learn of his advancement.

Mrs. J. D. Wilson, wife of the well known Illinois Central engineer, and family went to Louisville today at noon where they will reside. Mr. Wilson will be transferred to that division soon. He is now running between here and Central City. He has been a resident of this city for the past nine years and has gained many friends who will regret to learn of his removal.

Chief Clerk Chas. Morris, of the master mechanic's department, will leave about the 7th for Battle Creek, Mich., as was before stated in The Sun. Mr. L. I. Gardner, of Clinton, Ill., will arrive here on the 6th to act as Mr. Morris' substitute. Mr. Morris will be absent from the city ninety days.

Mr. A. M. Dustin, the foreman of the local Illinois Central boiler shops, sent Mr. Henry Schanz, a boiler maker, to Henderson to relieve Foreman Hofflich of that place who is ill. Mr. Hofflich was formerly foreman of the boiler shops here.

Engine No. 349, that was wrecked at Newburn about one month ago in colliding with another freight engine, will be placed in the shops for repairs today. The engine has no cab and the front end is knocked out. It will be placed in the stall occupied by engine No. 5 which will be taken out today.

Mr. Charlie Sugars, the chief clerk in the yardmaster's office last night returned from Sailor Springs, Ill., where he had been taking a ten days vacation. He went to duty this morning and the men were all changed back today. Mr. J. G. Hunter, of Princeton, who has been acting as an extra clerk, returned home today at noon.

Yard Master Furgerson is laying off on account of the accident to his little girl who was kicked in the face by a horse several days ago. The jaw was shattered and yesterday the physician put the face in a plaster of paris cast. She is doing quite nicely now.

Miss Mattie Ryan, the stenographer in the master mechanic's office, will leave for Louisville about the 6th to accept the new position under Supt. H. B. Wallace. Miss Annie Jones of the city, has been appointed her successor and went to work this morning.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"All that is, has been, all that has been, is, or will be."

THAT DEMOCRATIC HARMONY.

There is no symptom of a cessation of hostilities in the Democratic party of McCracken county, and the Democratic party all continue to misrepresent the case and publish fake interviews. The facts in the matter are that the chairman of the county committee, Mr. J. E. Potter, became a candidate for office, which, under the party law, rendered him ineligible to hold a place on the committee, although according to the admission of other Democrats it would not prevent him from being chairman, provided he was not a member of the committee, which he did not have to be in order to be chairman. Instead of Mr. Potter's resigning as a committee member and taking chances of being elected chairman after becoming a private citizen, he held on to the place until a gigantic row developed, and the state central committee, which does not appear to be half so large as the Democratic county committee of McCracken, decided that Mr. Potter had forfeited his office. It also filled some vacancies on the committee resulting from the candidacy of other members, and appointed several men to fill places newly created, but which will not properly become precincts until October. Mr. Potter and his supporters, who decided at once that they were more important than the state central committee, concluded to override the latter, and in the recent meeting seem to have temporarily succeeded.

The members of the county committee who are loyal to the state central committee have accepted its appointments, and claim that Mr. Emery is a legally appointed committee member as well as chairman, as an officeholder can be a committee member or chairman of the committee, while a candidate for office cannot. Mr. Emery seems disposed, from later statements, to enforce his claims and will probably attempt to open the senatorial convention a week from Saturday.

Chairman Potter has now prepared a petition to the state central committee recognizing himself and the new secretary, Mr. Will Lydon as the real thing, but Congressman Wheeler and others who are with the Emery crowd decline to sign. The petition indicates that the other crowd is a little more afraid of the state central committee than it is disposed to confess, and is undertaking to ingratiate itself into the good will of the committee, which will have to uphold Secretary Eaton and his crowd, or take back water. County Judge Emery, seems from statements of one paper to regret the embarrassment of the predicament that has been thrust upon him, while another paper quotes him as saying he will do everything possible to prevent Mr. Potter from assuming the chairmanship. He says he wants harmony. It may be of interest to Mr. Emery to know that there is and can be no such thing as harmony in the Democratic party of McCracken county. Too many of the true blue are stalking about with knives up their sleeves, and the Democrats all know it, although they are hypocritical enough to pretend otherwise. The bolt in the recent committee meeting was only a cropping out of some of the hostility resulting from past conventions, and the recent county and city primaries. The fate of the Kilkenny cats is about all that can satisfy the two opposing factions of McCracken Democracy.

The Waterways convention on October 23 will be one of the most important meetings ever held in Paducah, and the citizens will make no mistake in preparing a most generous entertainment for the visitors, among whom will be some of the most prominent and influential men in the country, representing river interests for hundreds of miles. Paducah is one of the most important river cities from Pittsburgh to New Orleans and is in a position and entitled to derive much benefit from these meetings. Her river interests are large, and the steamboat contingent is very anxious to see the delegates accorded every evidence of hospitality. It is not too early to begin preparations now.

The world may or may not be going worse, but the supply of babies continues to increase, which ought to be a good indication. The total issue of the year just closed was 1,554,128 copies, and 580,518 were distributed in the United States and the remainder in foreign countries. The eighty-fifth report of the Bible society shows that during the nineteenth century it received $30,605,390 and have distributed 65,933,434 volumes.

Nothing has been heard lately of the proposed new college or the Industrial school for Paducah. These two projects are important and should be taken up and agitated. Paducah should get in the procession, and have one or both by all means.

In Nebraska twenty-four mortars were persistently fired with a hope of producing rain, but at last accounts none had come. This is a little noisier and more expensive than praying, but evidently it is not so effective.

The populists had about nine hundred votes in this county before the fusion with Democrats. The placing of a ticket in the field may be more of a figure than is anticipated in certain circles.

Mr. Daniel Bantz, Ottumwa, Ia., says: "Have had asthma and a very bad cough for years, but could get no relief from the doctors and medicines I tried, until I took FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. It gave immediate relief and done me more good than all the other remedies combined."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. EARLY ADVENTURES OF ROBERT LINCOLN.

"While my brother-in-law, Mr. Boynton, was in the hardware business in Springfield, Lincoln's son, Robert, then a boy of ten or twelve, entered the store one day with another boy of his own age. The lads had a quantity of lead pipe, which they wished to sell. A bargain was made and the money paid over to the boys, with no questions asked. Later in the day, however, Mr. Lincoln was visited at his home by the owner of a house which was undergoing repairs, and informed that his son Robert had stolen a quantity of lead pipe from the place, which the owner desired to either have paid for or returned.

"Mr. Lincoln was shocked. He called Robert and, without asking any questions, took the boy by the arm and marched him down to the store. When they entered Mr. Lincoln was looking very stern.

"Mr. Boynton," said he, "did my son Robert sell you some lead pipe today?"

"My brother-in-law was greatly embarrassed. Everybody in Springfield knew Abraham Lincoln. His honesty and integrity were never questioned, and the idea that his son would steal was highly improbable. Mr. Boynton, had, however, been notified in some manner that the pipe was stolen property. Nevertheless he did not want to implicate the son of Abraham Lincoln, so he said:—

"Ahem!—er—well, Mr. Lincoln, let me see No; I don't think it was your boy who brought that pipe in here. He don't look like the boy."

"There was a tinsmith at the rear of the store, and just as my brother-in-law was congratulating himself that young Lincoln would get out of the scrape, the sharp voice of the tinsmith exclaimed:—

"Yes 'tis, too. That's the chap—that Lincoln boy, and another one about his size. I remember 'em."

"Mr. Lincoln drew out his pocket-book and laid a bill upon the counter.

"Please let me have that pipe, Mr. Boynton," he said.

"The pipe was accordingly brought out. Mr. Lincoln placed it across Robert's shoulders. The two then left the store.

"It was an extremely hot day, and Robert Lincoln was barefooted. The store stood in a sort of square, which was paved with brick. These bricks had become heated by the sun, and produced an uncomfortable feeling to Robert's feet, as his father, with long strides, led him across the square. The boy danced along, first on one foot and then on the other. Suddenly, he exclaimed:—

"Say, pa, I can't stan' these hot bricks on my bare feet. Les' git over in the shade."

"Lincoln senior looked down at the boy with a quizzical smile, then drily replied:—

"Well, my son, you'd better get used to the heat. If you ever steal any more lead pipe you'll go to a place that's hotter than these bricks are."

Observations

....at Random

Fast driving in Paducah does not appear to diminish. Tuesday night three persons were run over, and Wednesday night a child. Dozens of people drive through the streets without regard to the safety of anyone. Some of the careless are boys, and others are men, but there are those of all ages and sizes. Among the most reckless drivers are men and boys on ice and delivery wagons. The wonder is that the mules are not driven to death. If it were anything but a mule, it probably would be. There is nothing, however, that provokes the average person more than to be run down, or what is almost as bad, frightened to death getting out of the way. Some day some person is going to be run over, and the offending driver shot down for his carelessness, and there will be plenty of people to say, "I told you so."

The members of the Gun club enjoyed a good joke on some of the visiting sportsmen at Allensville last week during the shoot. Mr. Moss Starr, of the city, took up a big ten-bore gun. He sat on the fence the first morning discussing the live bird shoot for the following day and thus delivered himself for the benefit of several strangers:

"Well, we haven't got anything but this old cylinder bore gun, and if the birds come towards us, or we can shoot 'em quick enough, we are all right. But if they go the other way, with 'nuthin' but this old cylinder bore gun we won't be in it, that's all."

He was speaking of the gun he and his brother Ben were shooting. A cylinder bore gun is the opposite of a choke bore, and will not shoot very far. In fact, to make a good shot with a cylinder bore gun a person has to be pretty close or pretty good. It is simply a derring-doin on a large scale.

So the next morning the Starr boys were on hand with their "cylinder bore gun," and there was a good crowd there to see how they used it. They killed the birds right and left, however, and finally one of them began shooting pigeons thirty-five yards and more. One of the visiting sportsmen looked on with amazement, and finally said to Mayor Lang: "Well, I've been to a good many places and seen a good deal of shooting, but I'll be d—d if that ain't the G—d—est cylinder bore gun that I ever saw in my whole life!"

"Who said it was a cylinder bore?" asked the mayor.

"He did himself," was the reply.

"Well if you'll look at it you'll see that it's the worst choke bore gun you ever saw," smiled the mayor. And the sportsman quietly but good naturedly remarked that the Paducah delegation was good at something else besides shooting.

Evidently the Dakota society reporter responsible for the following thinks that the plainest way is oftentimes the most expressive. It is his description of a "soiree," and of the costumes worn by the society people:

"Miss Mary Monroe, red frock, white sack and hair bunched; Miss Emma Latrobe, yellow dress and high heeled slippers; Miss Marion Willoughby, some kind of thin 'stuff,' white, tied up with blue tape, and hair frizzed; Miss Jennie Murchfield, red hair and gray suit, flat in front and stuck out behind; Miss Pauline Taely, bigger'n a two and dressed up to a top branch, she had a velvet outfit a mile long, and sixteen rows of buttons on her gloves—her hair was a dead yellow tied up like a bun and had a lot of vegetables in it; Miss Florence Hoos, green dress, flung with velvet and hot-tied up at the sides with a white checkrein; Miss Vinnie Hammerlep, white network with red streak, walked with a lisp and hair freecood."

Manager Malone of La Belle park, had a very amusing experience with a drunken man at the theater several nights ago. The man was pretty full and had laid down on one of the benches to sleep. Some one passed and struck the recumbent man's head with his knee, knocking off the hat. He then proceeded to give an exhibition of his swearing powers, but was soon stopped by Mr. Malone who placed his hand over the voluble offender's mouth. He tried every inducement to induce the man to leave the theater, but all to no avail. At length he asked the fellow to take a drink with him and he then nearly knocked the whole theater down in getting out.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"All that is, has been, all that has been, is, or will be."

THAT DEMOCRATIC HARMONY.

There is no symptom of a cessation of hostilities in the Democratic party of McCracken county, and the Democratic papers all continue to misrepresent the case and publish fake interviews. The facts in the matter are that the chairman of the county committee, Mr. J. E. Potter, became a candidate for office, which, under the party law, rendered him ineligible to hold a place on the committee, although according to the admission of other

Democrats it would not prevent him from being chairman, provided he was not a member of the committee, which he did not have to be in order to be chairman. Instead of Mr. Potter's resigning as a committeeman and taking chances of being elected chairman after becoming a private citizen, he held on to the place until a gigantic row developed, and the state central committee, which does not appear to be half so large as the Democratic county committee of Mc-Cracken, decided that Mr. Potter had forfeited his office. It also filled some vacancies on the committee resulting from the candidacy of other members, and appointed several men to fill places newly created, but which will not properly become precincts until October. Mr. Potter and his supporters, who decided at once that they were more important than the state central committee, concluded to override the latter, and in the recent meeting seem to have temporarily succeeded.

The members of the county com-tee who are loyal to the state central committee have accepted its appointments, and claim that Mr. Emery is a legally appointed committeeman as well as chairman, as an officerholder can be a committeeman or chairman of the committee, while a candidate for office cannot. Mr. Emery seems disposed, from later statements, to enforce his claims and will probably attempt to open the senatorial convention a week from Saturday.

Chairman Potter has now prepared a petition to the state central committee recognizing himself and the new secretary, Mr. Will Lydon as the real thing, but Congressman Wheeler and others who are with the Emery crowd decline to sign. The petition indicates that the other crowd is a little more afraid of the state central committee than it is disposed to confess,

and is undertaking to ingratiate itself into the good will of the committee, which will have to uphold Secretary

Eaton and his crowd, or take back water. County Judge Emery, seems from statements of one paper to regret the embarrassment of the predicament that has been thrust upon him, while another paper quotes him as saying he will do everything possible to prevent Mr. Potter from assuming the chairmanship. He says he wants harmony. It may be of interest to Mr. Emery to know that there is and can be no such thing as harmony in the Democratic party of McCracken county. Too many of the true blue are stalking about with knives up their sleeves, and the Democrats all know it, although they are hypocritical enough to pretend otherwise. The bolt in the recent committee meeting was only a cropping out of some of the hostility resulting from past conventions, and the recent county and city primaries. The fate of the Kilkenny cats is about all that can satisfy the two opposing factions of McCracken Democracy.

The Waterways convention on October 23 will be one of the most important meetings ever held in Paducah, and the citizens will make no mistake in preparing a most generous entertainment for the visitors, among whom will be some of the most prominent and influential men in the country, representing river interests for hundreds of miles. Paducah is one of the most important river cities from Pittsburgh to New Orleans and is in a position and entitled to derive much benefit from these meetings. Har river interests are large, and the steamboat contingent is very anxious to see the delegates accorded every evidence of hospitality. It is not too early to begin preparations now.

The world may or may not be getting worse, but the supply of bibles continues to increase, which ought to be a good indication. The total issue of the year just closed was 1,554,128 copies, and 580,513 were distributed in the United States and the remainder in foreign countries. The eighty-fifth report of the Bible society shows that during the nineteenth century it received $30,605,390 and have distributed 68,923,434 volumes.

Nothing has been heard lately of the proposed new college or the Industrial school for Paducah. These two projects are important and should be taken up and agitated. Paducah should get in the procession, and have one or both by all means.

In Nebraska twenty-four mortars were persistently fired with a hope of producing rain, but at last accounts none had come. This is a little noisier and more expensive than praying, but evidently it is not so effective.

The populists had about nine hundred votes in this county before the fusion with Democrats. The placing of a ticket in the field may be more of a figure than is anticipated in certain circles.

NEGRO MAIL CARRIERS.

Hopkinsville Ky., August 2.—Free mail delivery was introduced in this city yesterday with four carriers. WANTS TO SUCCEED HIMSELF.

Bardwell, Ky., August 2.—Judge J. D. White officially gave out the statement that he would positively be a candidate for reelection as judge of the court of appeals from this district. SHOT A BOOTLEGGER.

Bardwell, Ky., August 2.—Marshal Tom Warden, of Bardwell, shot a bootlegger who was selling whisky at an ice cream supper near town. He raided the joint, but the lawbreakers escaped. The man is not thought to be dangerously wounded.

Mr. Daniel Baptz, Ottaville, Ia., says: "Have had asthma and a very bad cough for years, but could get no relief from the doctors and medicines I tried, until I took FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. It gave immediate relief and done me more good than all the other remedies combined."

EARLY ADVENTURES OF ROBERT LINCOLN.

"While my brother-in-law, Mr. Boynton, was in the hardware business in Springfield, Lincoln's son, Robert, then a boy of ten or twelve, entered the store one day with another boy of his own age. The lads had a quantity of lead pipe, which they wished to sell. A bargain was made and the money paid over to the boys, with no questions asked. Later in the day, however, Mr. Lincoln was visited at his home by the owner of a house which was undergoing repairs, and informed that his son Robert had stolen a quantity of lead pipe from the place, which the owner desired to either have paid for or returned.

"Mr. Lincoln was shocked. He called Robert and, without asking any questions, took the boy by the arm and marched him down to the store. When they entered Mr. Lincoln was looking very stern.

"Mr. Boynton," said he, "did my son Robert sell you some lead pipe today?"

"My brother-in-law was greatly embarrassed. Everybody in Springfield knew Abraham Lincoln. His honesty and integrity were never questioned, and the idea that his son would steal was highly improbable. Mr. Boynton, had, however, been notified in some manner that the pipe was stolen property. Nevertheless he did not want to implicate the son of Abraham Lincoln, so he said:—

"Ahem!—er—well, Mr. Lincoln, let me see No; I don't think it was your boy who brought that pipe in here. He don't look like the boy."

"Yes 'tis, too. That's the chap—that Lincoln boy, and another one about his size. I remember 'em."

"Mr. Lincoln drew out his pocket-book and laid a bill upon the counter.

"Please let me have that pipe, Mr. Boynton," he said.

"The pipe was accordingly brought out. Mr. Lincoln placed it across Robert's shoulders. The two then left the store.

"It was an extremely hot day, and Robert Lincoln was barefooted. The store stood in a sort of square, which was paved with brick. These bricks had become heated by the sun, and produced an uncomfortable feeling to Robert's feet, as his father, with long strides, led him across the square. "Lincoln senior looked down at the boy with a quizzical smile, then drily replied:—

HOW BILL NYE WAS DISCOVERED.

Col. "Bill" Root of Laramie, Wyoming, the dealer in wild animals and discoverer of "Bill Nye," and who now has charge of the Indian village at Glen Island, tells the following story of how he "discovered" the humorist.

"Bill Nye," when he was a young man, wasn't much; in fact folks in Laramie wondered whether he would eventually dry up and blow away or just die of plain starvation. Things never would come his way, and that same way led through many rocky places. Everything to which he turned his hand seemed to wither under it, and he began to think that he was a 'hoodoo'.

"Bill was a pretty discouraged sort of a cuss when I said to him and his wife one day: 'Come out to the ranch and stay with me for a while,' and they came. Long before this time, Frances, Bill's wife, had made up her mind that Bill was cast in the mold of a lawyer, and nothing would do but Bill must study law. So Bill came along with his old books and would wander around the ranch trying to imitate the ozone and pages of Blackstone. But the cankerworm of worry was in his mind, and the ozone and several of the things I had in a cupboard seemed to do little good.

"Every little while Bill would sneak away, write something he called funny, send it away, and anxiously wait for the lightning. Now, Frances discouraged all this. She wanted the law or nothing. She felt that once Bill hung out his shingle all the world would fall over itself to get into Bill's office.

"Well, one day Bill met me about three miles away from the ranch and said: 'Bill, I want your advice. I've got something in my pocket and on my mind, and I want you to tell me what to do.'

"With that he unbuttoned his coat and pulled out a letter from a Denver newspaper inclosing a check for $20, showed it to me and asked, 'Shall I become a funny man or a lawyer?' I looked at Bill and then at the check, and back at Bill again. That check surprised me even more than it did him. But I was there to give judgment, and had to do it.

"Bill," I said, 'if you can find foolish people anywhere in this world who are ready to part with good bank checks for that stuff you grind out, you go right to the house get a big bottle out of the cupboard, put a wet towel about your head, and sit down and grind. A man must have brains to be a lawyer.'

"And Bill's wife never spoke to me for three years."—New York Times.

A Great Spouter.
An Ohio paper says that some men were drilling a well in search for oil, and at the proper time a number of nitroglycerine shells were lowered into the hole and exploded. One of them stuck about 25 feet below the surface, but the act was not known until afterward. There was a tremendous gush of oil, the flow being so strong that the carter was deluged from top to bottom. Apparently here was the biggest well in the history of the oil business, and the men which was doing the drilling naturally exulted at the prospect of a fortune. But their joy was short-lived. The Buckeye Pipe-Line Company's eight-inch pipe through which six thousand barrels of oil pass each day suddenly shut down. An investigation was started, and before many hours it was found that the new well had been drilled close to the pipe, which had been broken by the explosion, and the oil, which seemed to come from the well, really came from the pipe-line. This ended the career of a "great spouter."

Inspected the Shirtwaist.
To Mrs. Robert Osborn of New York belongs the credit of being the inventor of the now popular shirtwaist. A member of the fashionable set at Newport, Mrs. Osborn was an enthusiastic tennis player, and instructed a man shirtwaist of New York to build her a waist after his design to allow free play to the muscles while in active exercise. That first waist was made of pale blue percale, and Mrs. Osborn had the good fortune to originate a style which has stood the test of time. During the recent financial crash her husband lost his fortune, and Mrs. Osborn started to build a competence by designing gowns. Her dramatic breakfasts and musical teas have won for themselves a place in New York's "400," and they are said to be among the most successful functions ever held in that city.

BOOZE BOODLERS

Three Arrests as a Result of the St. John's Barbecue.

Trials Set for Tomorrow by Judge Emery
in the County Court.

A big haul was made at the St. John's picnic and barbecue yesterday in the way of violators of the whisky law. The following were arrested and are in jail to answer before Judge Emery tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock and after he gets through with them the government will probably take a hand in the game.

Joe Fields was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Rogers for selling whisky on the grounds. It is said that he had a grip containing forty-two bottles of whisky when arrested, and there is no way to determine how much he sold.

Frank Gibson was arrested by Constable J. R. Thompson for wine selling. He was doing a flourishing business as it is reported.

William Vandegriff was arrested by Constable Thompson and deputies Emery Harper and George Willow on the charge of beer selling. There is one warrant against each of the above three.

Linda Staten and Walter Hays were arrested on the grounds also, but on a breach of the peace charge. They had a fuss and were ready to attack each other with knives. It is alleged they were stopped, however, before there was any bloodshed. The above will be tried tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock before County Judge Emery.

CAPT. FOWLER

He Evinces Surprise That Much
Water is Used in Paducah.

The General Opinion of River Men
About the Water Supply of Paducah.

"What's all this fuss over the water about?" asked Captain Joe Fowler this morning. "Who's making it?" There was a deathly stillness among the others present, but finally some one remarked that the people were trying to find out where the drinking water they use comes from.

"The people?" he queried. "Why, they don't any of 'em use very much of it, do they?" he asked with a laugh. "But about the water," he resumed, "it is simply that sometimes we get Ohio river water, and sometimes we get Tennessee, but most of the time I think we get a mixture."

The river men almost unanimously say that the water supply comes from the Tennessee. "If the mouth of the pipe," one remarked to a Sun reporter this morning, "is where it is claimed, in the chute, then I say they do not always get the water from the Ohio river. There is a bar up the river a piece that extends nearly across the Ohio and this cuts the water off from this side of the river. The river has to be high indeed to flow the water through the chute and to make certain of the Ohio river water it would be best to place the pipe out into the middle of the Ohio. If the Tennessee river happens to be the highest then we get the water from that river."

PRECINCT CONVENTIONS TOMORROW.

At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon precinct conventions will be held throughout this senatorial district, composed of McCracken, Ballard, Marshall and Carlisle counties to nominate delegates to the convention at Bardwell on August 10. DANGEROUS FEMALE.

MARSHAL COLLINS THINKS SHE OUGHT TO BE SHIPPED.

Marshal Collins takes no stock in the story told yesterday by Minnie Brewster, a white beggar girl, who is reported to have said that a negro seized her down about Second and Jefferson and attempted to drag her into a cellar. She is stepdaughter of Wm. South. "We can't find the girl," he declared this morning. "Something ought to be done with her. She is a dangerous person and will get some one into trouble. She has had two or three men charged with attempting to criminally assault her, and I wouldn't believe anything she said. She ought to be sent out of town."

CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE CHOSEN.

Kuttawa, Ky., August 2.—The Democratic legislative committee for the Fifth district, composed of Lyon, and Marshall counties, met at Calvert City today and declared J. Boyard Wyatt the nominee by a vote of 15 to 3. Perfect harmony prevailed.

TESTING APPARATUS HERE

INSPECTOR HESSIG WILL BEGIN
TO USE THE NEW INSTRUMENTS AT ONCE.

Milk and Meat Inspector Hessig has received the milk testing machine and will begin to use it in testing the milk either today or tomorrow. He will not go to the dairies to make the tests but will catch the drivers on the wagons and make the tests on the streets. The machine is the latest thing in its line and is perfect. If the dairymen were so disposed they could put water in the milk if the tests were made at the dairies. As it is, however the milk will have to be pure as the tests will be made in the streets and the dairymen will have no chance to substitute water. Dr. Hessig, however, thinks the milk sold here is all mostly pure and thinks he will find no water in any of it.

PEACHES PLENTIFUL.

ONE OF THE LARGEST CROPS ON RECORD FOR THIS YEAR.

This will be a banner year for peaches all over the United States and the crop in the county will exceed all former years.

The orchards in and about the city are burdened with the fruit and while the quality is not equal to that of former years the abundance of it makes it satisfactory to the grower and its cheapness to the buyer.

The crop throughout the whole country is estimated to be over 75,000,000 bushels. Up to this time the Georgia peach has been sold on the markets, but within the past few days the home-grown fruit has been slowly driving out the southern product. The fruit in some of the orchards has shivered up on account of the hot weather, but there is an abundance of good fruit left for the market, and this is now being brought in.

Smoke Joe Wheeler 6c cigar. If Paducah makes the goods why not give it the preference.

The Sun only 10c a week.
